FIRE DEPT.

A firefighter in a yellow suit is lying inside a wooden frame on a wooden floor. The frame is rectangular and appears to be a mock-up for a small company drill. The firefighter is wearing a yellow suit with reflective stripes and a helmet. The floor is made of light-colored wood planks. The frame is made of light-colored wood and is set into the floor. The firefighter is lying on their back, with their head towards the bottom left of the frame and their feet towards the top right. The frame is open on the top and bottom sides, and the firefighter is lying in the center. The floor is made of light-colored wood planks, and the frame is made of light-colored wood. The firefighter is wearing a yellow suit with reflective stripes and a helmet. The frame is set into the floor, and the firefighter is lying inside it.
